Alpha Chi Rho Fraternity - 97th National Convention Fact Sheet

Who attends Convention?

Every Chapter has two Undergraduate and two Graduate votes (delegates) for Convention.

When does the Convention begin?

The Convention begins June 26, 2003 with registration for Undergraduates. Graduate Brothers usually arrive throughout the week. Last “official” event is the Feast on June 28.

What happens at Convention?

Convention is the supreme authority of Alpha Chi Rho. Brothers who participate in the 2 business sessions will have input in and impact on our future goals, priorities and direction.

Where do we stay?

The Host site for our Convention is The Union Club Hotel, located on the Purdue campus. Reduced Alpha Chi Rho Rates begin at $78/night. The Union Club Hotel 765-494-8913.

Is there any golf planned?

Yes. Several tee-times have been reserved on Friday, June 27th, 2003 starting at 8:00am. The host course is the Brick Boilermaker Golf Complex, host of the NCAA Women's Championship Tournament! Contact Matt Jenkins at the National HQ to reserve your spot!

The Officers of the National Fraternity and Educational Foundation cordially invite you and a guest to the 2003 Feast of the Fraternity. Join us as we celebrate the spirit of Alpha Chi Rho, recognize strong leadership and scholarship in our young Brothers, and socialize with Alumni and guests from the Mid-West and across the country.
